QUALITY.

If there is one thing that you want, when you go into a Drug Store, it is QUALITY. You want Quality in all Drugs and Chemicals; Quality in all prescription work; Quality in every-thing that has to do with medicine.

Is it not so?

Certainly! There can be no question about it! That is why our trade is so large. It is a recognized fact that our label on a bottle of medicine stamps it with Quality, because it never goes out on any bottle or box of medicine that does not possess Quality.

THE HONGKONG DISPENSARY.

in so far as the Anglo-Japanese treaty may necessitate it. Where that treaty is concerned a British Minister, speaking on behalf of the Government, has declared that Great Britain will act up to the very letter of the agreement. But while our Government's attitude is this, it cannot be denied that the sympathy of practically the whole country is absolutely with Japan. The British Press is almost solid in its support of our ally, and "the man in the street" is ready to cheer Japan and demonstrate in her favour on all possible occasions. In Russia there can be no doubt that considerable attention has been paid to this movement in the Press and the public of Great Britain. Alarm has been excited, and it seems more than probable that King Edward's letter to the Tsar was prompted by a desire to reassure the Russian monarch that the demonstrations of popular feeling in England must not be taken to indicate that the country was preparing to rush into hostilities with Russia. The letter may have been intended also as a rebuke to the home Press—that part of it which is most bitterly anti-Russian, chiefly, it seems, the Daily Telegraph and Daily Mail of London—and to the man in the street and, it may be added, in the music hall. To attach more weight to it would be wrong. That mistake will doubtless be made, however, and the King's letter will be twisted into an indication of a change of attitude on the part of Great Britain. There is no such change. Britain wishes to see peace, as she has wished all along. There is a revival of the reports about offers of mediation, based on what we do not know. The Ossinatievsky Lloyd of Shanghai says that the story about Britain trying to mediate now between Russia and Japan is confirmed by well-informed Russian quarters as fully correct; but, further says our German contemporary, even taking no account of the unreasonable demands of Japan, Russia has flatly rejected any mediation at this time. Really neither country desires mediation at present, and it is not likely that Britain will take the risk of being snubbed by pressing the offer of her services. We shall continue to remain neutral, unless forced to act otherwise, and if our neutrality is more benevolent toward Japan than Russia that is the fruit of Russia's policy in the past. With regard to the question what effect the lapse of time will have on our position it is idle at present to speculate. As has been said repeatedly in these columns, we could not afford to see Russia paramount in North-East Asia, which is what the crushing of Japan by her would mean. Apart from our duties to our ally, we have our own interests in China to consider, and they are threatened with absolute ruin if Russia continues to advance and drive's all competitors away.

The revised list of Justices of the Peace is published in the Gazette.

The Dallas Company and H.M.S. Glory had a pleasant game of cricket and tea-party on the field, at Happy Valley on Saturday afternoon. The Glory won.

It may be useful to many if we draw attention to the fact that, according to the mail tables for 1904, now published, the English mail leaves London the day after the French mail arrives.

Mr. Morgan Phillips, who for a short while transferred his allegiance from Shanghai to Hongkong, has rejoined the firm of Drummond and White-Cooper in Shanghai.

The leave granted to Governor Trappell of Kinohau has been, for the time being, cancelled. Captain van Sommers, who was appointed Acting Governor, has been transferred to the Naval Office at Berlin.

The appointments are notified in the Gazette of the Hon. Gershom Stewart as a member of the Medical Board; and of Mr. J. Orange as a Member of the Authorized Architects' Committee.

A correspondent writes with reference to our leading article of Saturday that most readers of Mr. Hancock's book on Japan will surely be astonished when they come upon the statement that "in consequence of the physical exercises (i.e. jiu-jitsu) practised by them the Japanese have become the healthiest, the strongest, and the happiest men and women in the world." "As a matter of fact," writes our correspondent, "it can hardly be claimed that jiu-jitsu is any more a national exercise in Japan than is wrestling in England. Very few Japanese are trained in this science, and it is a well ascertained fact that the physique of the Japanese has been rapidly deteriorating with the growth of industrial conditions, and the almost universal disregard of physical exercises. A study of the statistics of the Army recruiting office will be convincing on this point. If I mistake not, the Government of Japan for some five or six years past has annually voted a sum of money for the encouragement of western physical exercises—cricket, baseball, football, rowing, &c.—among the youth of the country in order to improve their physique."

Mr. N. Post has resumed charge of the Austro-Hungarian Consulate in Hongkong.

The Morning Post announces that Mr. W. E. Davidson, C.M.G., late Colonial Secretary of the Transvaal, will succeed Mr. Sydney Olivier, C.M.G., as Colonial Secretary of Jamaica.

A telegram dated Calcutta, February 19th, says:—The position in Tibet remains unchanged. The rigour of the climate is distinctly abating. No news either of the new or old Amban has yet been received.

The resignation by Messrs. H. H. J. Gompertz and Bruce Shepherd of their posts as President and Member of the New Territory Land Court is notified in the Gazette; as is the appointment of Messrs. C. McI. Messer and J. R. Wood as Members of that Court.

Sir William Ramsay, lecturing recently at Sion College on "Stars and Atoms," made the startling statement that a leading firm of platinum manufacturers had unconsciously been throwing radium into the streets for more than twenty years, and that the precious substance is now lying somewhere in the dust-heaps of London.

On the 27th ult., the German cruiser Thetis returned from Chemulpo, bringing the German legation guard from Seoul back. Baron Saldern, the German Minister, thought this step expedient in the interest of keeping up a strict neutrality. He stated that the Japanese are acting as correctly that he considers himself clear of all danger under their protection.

We are indebted to Messrs. Kelly and Walsh for a copy of the "Authentic War Map" of North China, Korea, and Western Japan, published in the Mani at 50 cents gold. It is a very useful folding map, and on the back there is a lot of interesting information about the events which led up to the war, the relative strengths of the combatants, etc.

The following returns of the average amount of banknotes in circulation and of specie in reserve in Hongkong during February are certified by the managers of the respective Banks:—

THE DALLAS COMPANY'S FAREWELL.

Notwithstanding that the Philharmonic Society were giving a concert in St. Andrew's Hall, the Dallas Company were again favoured with a crowded house in the Theatre Royal on Saturday evening, when they brought a most successful season to a close by a second performance of The Messenger Boy. Throughout the company's season the bookings have been exceptionally good, and on Saturday evening, as at some of the previous performances, scarcely a vacant seat was to be seen. The acting in The Messenger Boy was uniformly good, and the audience extremely enthusiastic. The title-role was capably taken by Mr. Percival Knight, and Miss Grace Desmond, as Tommy's mother, was an equally good impersonation. In the second act Miss Blanche Garbette played a selection on the violin which proved her to be a skilful executant, and she was recalled again and again. At the fall of the curtain there was a vigorous outburst of applause by way of saying farewell to the Company, who are proceeding to Shanghai. It is probable that on their way south they will again occupy the stage at the theatre for a few nights.

PIGEONS IN HONGKONG.

It will be remembered that a fancy pigeon show was recently held at the Kowloon Hotel, when Mr. A. Nicholson, of the Camopolitain Dock, acted as judge. There was a fine display representing some very good types—34 entries in all. Included in the competitors were Mr. and Miss Logan, and Messrs. J. Roberts, J. W. Osborne, F. Hamlin, Archibald, David, Hand, J. C. Logan, T. Logan, G. W. Kynoch, and Somerville. Mr. J. Roberts secured a first prize for a very handsome black pouter cock, Mr. J. C. Logan coming second with a grey hen, and Mr. Kynoch third. A splendid pouter cock, owned by Mr. T. Logan, and a bird belonging to Mr. Hand were highly commended. In the Jacobin class the first prize fell to Miss Logan for a pair of red pigeons; other birds belonging to the same lady, received degrees of merit. Miss Logan received another first prize for a pair of red owls (African); a blue owl (English) was highly commended, as also was a bird coming under the heading of twibits.

RUSSIAN "WAR NEWS."

In a Ceylon paper just received the following telegram is printed in black type:—

Hankow, Feb. 16th. During the night of the 13th the Japanese lost six warships, we had no losses. The Japanese landed about three thousand in the Bay of Kinohow, our two hundred and fifty Cossacks cut them up with swords. (Signed) Malohanoff.

The telegram is stated to have been sent by the well-known Russian tea firm of Molchanoff, Pechnatoff & Co. to their branch house at Colombo. The wish was evidently father to the thought in this case.

THE WAR.

TROUBLE AT SEOUL.

Kobe, 4th Mar., 12.30 p.m.
On Wednesday night, the 2nd instant, some bombs were thrown into the residences of the Korean Foreign Minister and of the Councillor of the Foreign Department at Seoul. The bombs, however, were weak, and their only effect was to damage the furniture slightly in the houses attacked. The outrage is attributed to the Peddlers' Guild, which opposed the signing of the Protocol between Japan and Korea.

NEW BRITISH AMBASSADOR FOR S. PETERSBURG.

LONDON, 6th Mar., 2.15 p.m.

Sir Charles Scott is retiring from his post as H.B.M.'s Ambassador to S. Petersburg. The Hon. Charles Hardinge, present Secretary of Embassy there, succeeds him.

DEATH OF COUNT WALDERSEE.

LONDON, 6th Mar., 2.15 p.m.

Count von Waldersee is dead. [This intelligence will be received with regret in China, where the late Count made him, self known in the time of the Boxer troubles. Field Marshal Count von Waldersee was born in 1832. He entered the Prussian Army in 1850, and served in the campaigns of 1866 and 1870. During the Franco-German War he acted as aide de camp to the King of Prussia, and was present as a staff officer at the battles of Gravelotte, Beaumont, and Sedan. In 1871 he was appointed German Chargé d'Affaires in Paris; while some 17 years later he acted as chief of the Prussian staff. In 1891 he commanded the 9th Army Corps, and he was appointed Inspector-General of the Third Army in 1898. He was appointed to the command of the Allied Forces in China in 1901, but arrived too late to take much part in the campaign. In fact he was not a great success in the post, but personally he inspired respect. —ED. D.P.]

REUTER'S SERVICE.

KING EDWARD AND THE TSAR.

LONDON, 4th March.

Count Beckendorff, Russian Ambassador in London, who has just returned from S. Petersburg, where he has been on a farewell visit to his son, who is starting for the front, paid a visit yesterday evening to King Edward for the purpose, it is believed, of delivering an autograph letter from the Tsar replying to one from King Edward, in which he assures the Tsar that despite the agitation of the Press and the man in the street, the neutrality of Great Britain in the present war between Russia and Japan would be maintained.

THE WAR.—PREPARATIONS ON THE YALU.

LONDON, 3rd March.

Reuter's correspondent at Seoul wires that the Russians are hastily constructing a fortress and extensive earthworks at Antung to obstruct the passage of the Yalu by the Japanese.

THE RUSSIAN FLEET IN THE RED SEA.

LONDON, 3rd March.

The Russian torpedo-boats which recently left Port Said for Algiers have returned to Port Said, alleging bad weather.

LONDON, 4th March.

Fresh orders have been sent from S. Petersburg to Admiral Vitkevich, for the Russian squadron to remain in the Red Sea to watch for warships and capture contrabanders.

EGYPT'S NEUTRALITY.

LONDON, 4th March.
The Egyptian Government decided, on the 12th February, that belligerents were not allowed to escort prizes through the Canal. It is presumed that this contributed to the release of the colliers.

LATER.

The Egyptian Government protests against Russian ships repeatedly oversteering time limits.

The five Russian torpedo-boats which recently returned to Port Said have been ordered to leave again and have been refused further coal.

SUEZ CANAL BLOCKED.

LONDON, 4th March.

A Russian torpedo-boat, in passing the Canal, collided with and sank an Egyptian Revenue cutter. It is expected the Canal will be blocked for 24 hours.

REINFORCEMENTS FOR MALTA.

LONDON, 3rd March.

It is stated that 2,000 additional troops are going to Malta; it is supposed with a view to proceeding to China in the event of necessity arising.

The rehearing of the Dreyfus case has commenced in the Cour de Cassation. The French public is entirely unconcerned.

FOOTBALL.

H.K.F.C. v. Y.E.C.

Played in the Happy Valley on Saturday afternoon this match ended in a win for the H.K.F.C. Hongkong winning the toss, the Y.E.C. kicked off, Bonnar almost immediately making a run up the centre, which was repulsed by the defenders. Hongkong again attacked, and Williams had a fair chance for shooting from the right wing; Humphreys forced him to kick into touch. The Y.E.C. recovered ground somewhat, but Cooper got away up the right wing and shot. Crake stopped the ball, and, also, shortly afterwards stopped a shot by Bonnar. Eventually Williams put the ball into net from close quarters. The Y.E.C. made a determined effort to equalise, Marti doing some good work; he shot just a little wide. A collision between Kew and Forbes gave a foul against the Y.E.C. After some more or less even play Cooper shot wide. Bonnar and Williams shot in succession, the ball being fielded each time. A little later, Williams dribbled up the right wing but, after receiving a good pass back from another player, was prevented from shooting by Forbes. The Y.E.C. advanced, H. W. Sayer shooting wide. H. C. Sayer next had a shot, the ball going over. The Y.E.C. lost some good chances of making headway in their left wing, and Hongkong went forward. Wicheil had hard lines on the left wing, and the Y.E.C. got away. Marti put one in, but Hickling was "at home." Then after Cooper had skillfully avoided two opponents, he shot wide. Rutherford from the centre also met the same fate. Coombes got away amid cheering; he was successfully met by Hickling. At half time the score was—H.K.F.C. 1, Y.E.C. 0. On the restart Austen played well at back, passing to Williams; a goal-kick for the Y.E.C., however, resulted. Cooper shot a second goal for Hongkong, things seeming very black for the Y.E.C.; they continued to play a fair game, though a losing one, against their more practised opponents. A corner was given near the Club goal. Shortly afterwards a foul fell to Hongkong, Coombes being the culprit. The Y.E.C., after hard work, were in a good way for scoring; but nothing came of it. Cooper got away, passing to Williams, who, in turn, passed to Brent. Williams put in a good shot, but Crake was there. Brent had equal ill luck. Marti, after some fair play in the right wing, passed to Pearce, who shot wide. Kew finally scored a third goal for the Club, and the score was—H.K.F.C. 3, Y.E.C. 0.

Teams as follows:—

H.K.F.C.—C. H. Hickling, goal; H. C. Austen and V. F. Ansell, backs; H. C. Gray, C. T. Kew, and G. P. de Martin, halves; W. H. Williams, C. R. S. Cooper, N. H. Rutherford, J. W. C. Bonnar, and H. A. Brent, forwards.
Y.E.C.—W. A. Crake, goal; J. Wicheil and E. Humphreys, backs; H. C. Sayer, H. S. Holmes, and J. Forbes, halves; A. Marti, Hamblin, Coombes, Pearce, and H. W. Sayer, forwards.

WEATHER REPORT.

The Hongkong Observatory on the 5th inst. issued the following report:—

On the 5th at 12.3 p.m. the barometer has risen rapidly over the Yangtze valley, and fallen at all other stations.

The depression in the interior of China has now its centre further southward.

Gradients are slight at present over the Formosa Channel, but may be expected to become steeper for N.E. winds later.

Forecast.—Moderate S. to S.W. winds; cloudy, fair.

Information from Japan and N. China is wanting.

WAR NOTES.

THE REFUGEES ON THE "ELBA."

No little curiosity has been felt locally as to what is going to be done with the Russian refugees picked up by the Italian cruiser Elba at Chemulpo on the 9th ult. and brought down by her to Hongkong. They number some 180 (as the complement of the Elba is only 250, it may be imagined that their presence on board her for nearly a month put the Italians to no little inconvenience) and include some wounded. We are now able to state, on the most reliable authority, that the arrangements for the future of the refugees have all been settled and that they will leave on the Messageries Maritimes s.s. Australien for Saigon tomorrow. They, together with the refugees on the French cruiser Pascal, will then go on to Colombo where the rest of the rescued crews are detained. When the whole body of the refugees are gathered together, they will be sent back to Russia on parole. Probably this afternoon Captain Bore of the Elba will formally hand over the refugees to the Russian Consul.

A summary of the negotiations with regard to the Chemulpo refugees will no doubt be of interest to our readers, and we accordingly give one, as well as a brief explanation of the various international questions that have arisen in the matter.

As is well known, on the 9th February, after an unsuccessful engagement just outside Chemulpo, the commander of the Russian warship Koreets blew up his ship, and the commander of the Varyag sank his vessel, declaring they intended to take refuge on the neutral ships in Chemulpo harbour—the British Talbot, French Pascal, and the Italian Elba. These vessels then sent their boats and took off the men, many of them wounded, and unarmed. This episode was entirely unprecedented in naval history, and quite naturally so because naval engagements take place generally either in the open sea, or on the coasts of one of the belligerents; drowning men are therefore saved either by their own or the enemy's ships. The only case that presents any slight analogy to the one under review is the one that happened in the harbour of Callao, Peru, on the 3rd July 1880, when the Italian man-of-war Garibaldi picked up the survivors of the Chilean transport Loa, which had been blown up, and afterwards gave them up to the admiral of the Chilean fleet blockading the harbour. But in that case the Loa had not been blown up either in an engagement with the Peruvians or by her own commander, but had been destroyed through carelessness in taking alongside a boat apparently laden with fruit and vegetables, but secretly laden with explosives. It might therefore be considered that the Loa had been destroyed by an accident, as no visible enemy had taken part in the explosion, which might have destroyed a neutral ship imprudent enough to seize the abandoned craft. The unprecedented nature of the Chemulpo episode has given rise to many opinions here and elsewhere in the Far East, amongst which is one that the refugees should have been set free on parole by the nations whose vessels had saved them; and another is that the commanders of the three neutral vessels had no right to take on board the crews of the Varyag and Koreets. Though, as we have said, there is no parallel case in naval history, we may by analogy refer to military history, where there are many cases recorded of hard pressed troops taking refuge on neutral territory. In such cases, it has always been customary to detain the refugees until the end of the war. This custom has also been inserted as an article of the Hague convention, which expressly stipulates that neutral nations must detain until the end of the war the refugees from the belligerent armies which enter its territory—they must be interned, i.e., sent into the interior of the country, away from the frontier where the fighting is going on. This custom and the article of the Hague convention contain a complete answer to the opinions above mentioned. The commanders of the three neutral ships in Chemulpo harbour were right in according refuge to the defeated Russian crews, as the right of refuge is now generally admitted. On the other hand, the countries owning the three vessels had no right to release the refugees on parole, but on the contrary were obliged by international principles and by the stipulations of the Hague convention to detain the refugees on their territory and under their surveillance until the end of the war. As our readers all know, the refugees on H.M.S. Amphitrite, who were transhipped from the Talbot, were in fact sent to Colombo to be detained there until the end of the war.

The new arrangements mentioned above, are due to special negotiations between the Governments interested, and we are not in a position to state anything further than that the Russian Government has promised the neutral Governments of Britain, France, and Italy that the refugees will take no further part in the present war, and in consequence the Japanese Government declared it had no objection to the refugees being sent back to Russia. This arrangement appears most satisfactory for all parties concerned, and reflects great credit on the Foreign Office of the various countries which have so rapidly and smoothly settled an unprecedented international question, which might have led to interminable petty complications if dealt with in a less accommodating spirit.

SHANGHAI NEWS.

According to the N.C. Daily News, the Shanghai mandarin has received advices from Peking that the reason why measures are to be taken to have the Mandour disarmed at last was due to a threat made by Mr. Uchida, the Japanese Minister in Peking, to the Waiwupai, that if any more delay was made in forcing the Mandour to leave Shanghai, a Japanese REUTER'S telegram of the 4th instant, referring to certain correspondence between King EDWARD and the Tsar, is perhaps rather likely to have too much importance attached to it. In the first place, it is not probable that the actual text of King EDWARD'S letter has been made public, and any outline of its contents therefore must be tentative only; that is to say, liable to misrepresentation. In interpreting any official document, the exact wording of which is unknown, the bias of the one who is interpreting must inevitably cause a certain amount of distortion. However, supposing that REUTER'S summary of the King's letter is correct, what are we to deduce from it? His Majesty is reported to have written to the Tsar, assuring him that, "despite the agitation of the Press and the man in the street, the neutrality of Great Britain in the present war between Russia and Japan will be maintained." There is really nothing new in this. Great Britain has already declared through the mouths of responsible Ministers that she will remain strictly neutral. No sensible man has accused her of departing from this attitude. There is no call for her to do so while the other nations of the world refrain from interfering in the struggle now proceeding in North-eastern Asia. Her position has been described as one of "keeping the ring." There is no suggestion of an abandonment of this position, except

IMPERIAL MARITIME CUSTOMS NOTIFICATION.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that

Kongmoon having been declared a Treaty Port, an Office of the Imperial Maritime Customs will be opened there on MONDAY, 7th March, 1904. Shipment and discharge of Goods and Passengers will be allowed under the provisional rules for trade on the West River separately notified. The provisional steamer anchorage will be in the West River opposite the I.M. Customs near the mouth of the Kongmoon Creek.

F. W. MAZE, Acting Commissioner of Customs.

Custom House, Kongmoon, 1st March, 1904. [684]

IMPERIAL MARITIME CUSTOMS NOTIFICATION.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that

Kongmoon having been declared a Treaty Port, and the Provisional Regulations of Trade on the West River of 1897 being under revision, the following provisional rules will govern steamer traffic on the West River until further notice:—

The 1897 Regulations remain in force where not affected by the provisional rules now published.

Shipment and discharge of goods and passengers will be allowed, in addition to Treaty Ports, at the following six Stages or Ports of Call:—

1. Amoy, Paktauwan, Shingling, Lotinghan, Takling and Daming, and steamers may land and ship passengers and their luggage at any of the following regular passenger stations:—

Yangki (in Taihung Channel), Mahling (in Junction Channel), Kaukung, Kulow, Wingon, Howlik, Lukpa, Yuesing, Lukto, and Pangchuen (in West River).

Passengers' luggage must not contain articles subject to duty, and the presence of dutiable articles will render the whole liable to confiscation.

Steamers are divided into two classes:—

1. Local River Steamers running from Canton or Kongmoon to ports up river without leaving Liang Kwang waters.

2. Foreign-going Steamers from and to Hongkong, Macao, etc., trading for the voyage up and down river.

LOCAL RIVER STEAMERS will deposit their registers with their Consul or (if Consularly unrepresented) with the Customs at Canton or Kongmoon, where the Customs, in addition to inspection or issue of the Arms Certificate, will issue a Certificate to the steamer to be called the RIVER PASS valid for the year during which issued, on expiry of which it must be either surrendered or renewed at Canton or Kongmoon.

FOREIGN-GOING STEAMERS will enter the West River either via Kongmoon or via Canton. If entering via Kongmoon they will take the Motomoon (Broadway) route and report at the Mongchao (Lappa Customs) Station, to comply with the requirements of previous regulations including issue or inspection of Arms Certificate, and take out the KONGMOON PASS. They will then proceed direct to Kongmoon where, if bound further up the West River, they will surrender the said Pass to the Kongmoon Customs, and deposit their Registers with their Consul or (if Consularly unrepresented) with the Customs, and receive a Certificate to be called the SPECIAL RIVER PASS, without which they may not trade at any Treaty Port, Port of Call or Passenger Station. On return to Kongmoon and when all dues and duties are paid or accounted for, the Customs, on surrender of the Special River Pass, will issue a Clearance which will entitle Steamers to the return of register and KONGMOON PASS, which latter is to be surrendered at Mongchao on the way out for cancellation. If entering via Canton, steamers will deposit their registers with Consul or Customs in order to obtain the SPECIAL RIVER PASS, the surrender of which on return to Canton will entitle them to Customs Clearance and possession of register.

Steamers trading at the West River Treaty Ports must enter and clear and load and discharge cargo in the same manner as at other Treaty Ports along the Coast, and in accordance with the Customs Regulations of the River Ports concerned.

DUTY TREATMENT.

Cargo arriving from a Foreign Port (a) for a Treaty Port pays Import Duty at Port of discharge, (b) for a Port of Call is to be reported at that Treaty Port, Kongmoon or Canton, and pay Import Duty there.

Native Goods imported at a Treaty Port from a Port of Call without passing another Treaty Port en route pay Full Import Duty at Port of discharge; exported from a Treaty Port to a Port of Call with or without passing another Treaty Port en route pay Export Duty at Port of shipment. If passing a Treaty Port en route Native Goods imported or exported as above pay Full and Half Duty on discharge or shipment. Native Goods from a Port of Call to a Port of Call passing a Treaty Port en route must be reported and pay Full Import Duty at said Treaty Port.

Cargo shipped at a Port of Call for a Foreign Port pays Export Duty at Kongmoon or Canton. Foreign-going steamers when applying for Customs Clearance at Kongmoon or Canton are required to present a Manifest of all cargo on board, and either pay Duty or exhibit proof of duty paid elsewhere.

The above Rules take effect from 7th March, 1904.

R. DE LUCA, Acting Commissioner of Customs.

Custom House, Canton, 1st March, 1904. [685]

NAVAL NOTES.

H.M.S. "ALGERINE."
H. M. twin-screw sloop Algerine, Commander Rowland Nugent, arrived from Singapore yesterday, having left that port on the 23rd
ult. She experienced moderate, overcast
weather.H.M.S. "LEVIATHAN."
H. M. twin-screw first class cruiser Leviathan, Captain the Hon. Walter G. Stopford, returned from Mirs Bay yesterday.

PRINCE ADALBERT OF PRUSSIA.

Between nine and ten o'clock on Saturday morning the German cruiser Hertha arrived at Hongkong, from Woosung, at the mouth of the Yangtze, exchanging salutes with the British flagship Albatross. Amongst the junior lieutenants on board is Prince Adalbert of Prussia, second son of the Emperor William of Germany. It will be remembered that this young officer passed through Hongkong, voyaging from Germany to join the Hertha at Shanghai, by the N.D.L. s.s. König Albert, on the 25th of last November. At that time, in conformity with the German Emperor's desire, no official welcome or reception was given him.
Now that he has joined his ship, however, things may be different. Prince Adalbert is a grand nephew of King Edward; he is to remain on the China Station for two years before returning to Germany.

NAVAL FUNERAL AT HONGKONG.

Carpenter Sneller, of H.M.S. Glory, was buried with Naval honours at Happy Valley on Saturday afternoon, the funeral being a most impressive one. As it passed down to the burial ground when numerous spectators were watching various games on the recreation fields, quite a large number of civilians followed to the cemetery. Order of procession was as follows:—
A Naval officer, marines from the Glory, band of H.M.S. Leviathan; a gun's crew, dragging along a gun-carriage on which was placed the coffin; the mourners (blue-jackets, with officers bringing up the rear); and finally civilians. The coffin, covered with the Union Jack, was surmounted with some very handsome wreaths of flowers; a sailor carried another, which was encased in a glass frame. Marching to the grave-yard in this procession, marines with their rifles sloping downward, and the band playing the funeral march to the slow beat of the big drum, one could not help being impressed. On arriving at the entrance of the cemetery, the marines lined out to allow the coffin and procession to pass, and the band stopped playing. When at the grave, Mr.
Gordon-Vandin, chaplain of the Glory, proceeded with the ceremony, the sailors joining in such familiar words as those of the Lord's Prayer.
To finish up three volleys were fired into the air, between bugle calls. Included in the officers present were Captain the Rt. Hon. W. G. Stop-ford, Commander Hopwood, and Lieutenants Ryder, Kingston, and Harley. They were full-dress (cocked-hats); midshipmen, white cap-covers. Returning home the band played music as they marched.The deceased came out to China recently on H.M.S. King Alfred, and was transferred to the Glory. He died on Thursday night, having, it is supposed, fallen from a balcony in the Naval Canteen. The body was discovered lifeless, head lying in a pool of blood, at 4 a.m. last Friday, by a policeman on patrol. The deceased, it appears, had engaged a room at the Canteen for the night. When discovered he was minus hat and coat, which were afterwards found in his bed-room. It seems that he must have fallen over the verandah on the second story. As telegraph and telephone wires were damaged, he presumably, came in contact with them. At the mortuary it was discovered that he had a broken arm and fractured skull.

SHARE REPORT.

Messrs. Elich Georg & Co. say in their Weekly Share List, dated Hongkong, 5th
March:—Business continues very quiet indeed, and transactions have been few and far between,
while rates do not improve, and in many cases show a tendency towards weakening further.The sterling demand rate on London is 1s. 10 1/2 d., while rates on Shanghai are the same as given in our last circular.BANK SHARES.—Hongkong and Shanghai gold and have further sellers at $610; the London rate is $59. Nationals continue in demand at $34.MARINE INSURANCE SHARES.—Unions are weaker and offering at $185. China Traders have changed hand at $44 to $54, and a small lot can be placed now at $55. North China and Yangtze are unchanged. Canteen have found buyers at $175, but more shares are on offer.FIRE INSURANCE SHARES.—Hongkong's gold in a small way at $390, at which rate shares can be placed. China have been taken off the market at $90 to $95, and a small odd lot is offering at $90.SHIPPING SHARES.—Hongkong, Canton and Macao Steamboats have dropped to $273, sellers.
Indo-China have improved; they sold in the early part of the week at $244 cash and $23 for end of the month, but in sympathy with a higher Shanghai quotation, where shares sold up to $2. 60 cash, the rate here has since advanced to $344 buyers. On time business has been done at $36 per 31st May, and $33 per 31st July. 40 China and Manilla have sellers at $23 and Douglass at $25, while Star Ferries are unchanged. Shares sold at 18s. 9d. to 19s. 6d. and at latter rate sellers rule the market.REFINERS.—China Sugars sold at $107, $106 and $107 cash and end of the month, and have further buyers. On time a small business has been put through at about the equivalent of cash rates. Luzons unchanged.MINING SHARES.—Unions are unchanged and quite neglected; the result of the February crushing at the mines, as received by wire, is as follows:—63 ounces gold from 769 tons ore crushed, estimated value $2,590. The crushing yielded 40 tons from the recently discovered coal at Manik, yielding 40,000 lbs. Charbonnages sold on offer at the reduced rate of $500, while cane have improved to $83 buyers, after sales at $6 and $64 to the extent; a telegram has been received, stating that 2,600 tons are to be crushed for a yield of 1,100 ounces gold.DOCKS, WHARVES, AND GODOWNS.—Hongkong and Whampoa Dock Company's shares changed hands at $201 to $202 and have buyersat the latter rate. Hongkong and Kowloon Wharves are wanted at $95. New Amoy Dock shares have sellers at $37.
Farnham have improved in the north, and our last quotation is $13 1/2. Shanghai and Hongkong Wharves are quoted $1. 20 1/2.
LANDS, HOUSES, and BUILDINGS.—A few
Hongkong Land Investment and Agency
Company's shares found buyers at $148.
Kowloon Lands at $35 and West Point at $54 continue on offer, while Hongkong Hotels are obtainable at the reduced rate of $144.
Humphreys Estates sold at $104, $10 and $104;
and are steady at latter rate. Shanghai Lands are quoted in the north $1. 10 1/2.
COTTON MILLS.—Unchanged and without sales.MISCELLANEOUS.—Green Island Cements are on offer at $24. China Borax can be placed at $34; the first ordinary yearly meeting of shareholders will be held on 19th instant, transfer books closing from to-day till 19th inst.
Watsons are on offer at $144 and Electric at old quotations. Ropes sold at $150. Fenwick or steady at $51; the 15th ordinary general meeting of shareholders will be held on 9th instant, transfer books closing from 7th to 10th instant.
Less are obtainable at $227. China Providents sold at $8.80 to $83, closing with sellers at $8.80.
Watkins are on offer at $74 and Powells at $93.
Langkuis are quoted in the north at $1. 300; a meeting of shareholders is advertised for the 15th instant, to confirm the appointment of Mr.
Join Prentice as a director in the place of the late Mr. Geo. McBain.
